

Ellis, Ged & Bodden P.A., Continues Aggressive Expansion Strategy

Patrick W. Lawlor Joins Leading South Florida Law Firm

BOCA RATON, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--The law firm of Ellis, Ged, & Bodden, P.A., is pleased to announce that Board Certified Trial Attorney Patrick W. Lawlor has joined the firm. Mr. Lawlor is a highly respected litigator, specializing in Personal Injury and Wrongful Death cases.

"Mr. Lawlor's background and leadership will definitely enhance our ability to serve our clients' needs," says C. Glen Ged, a founding partner in the Boca-Raton based law firm. Mr. Lawlor brings more than 16 years of trial experience to the firm as well as an impressive record of successful verdicts and settlements. "He will add tremendous depth to our lineup," Mr. Ged notes. "It will be great to work together, developing the strategies that will deliver exceptional results for our clients."

One of the areas where Mr. Lawlor will add depth to the firm's expertise is in the area of Maritime Law, cases involving injuries of passengers and crew members which occur on commercial cruise liners and boating accidents as well as Jet Ski accidents. He has successfully litigated a number of cases involving this unique area of practice and looks forward to joining forces with Ellis, Ged & Bodden's other maritime experts, including Attorney John F. Billera, a specialist in Admiralty and Maritime Law.

Mr. Lawlor, who graduated from Nova Southeastern Law School in 1992, is admitted to practice before the Florida Bar; U.S Appeals Court, 11th Circuit Court; U.S. District Court, Southern District and is ranked as an AV rated Attorney by Martindale Hubbell, which is the highest rating a lawyer can be given. Additionally he is a member of The Million Dollar Advocate, The Florida Justice Association, The Palm Beach and Broward County Bar Associations and The Sports Lawyers Association. He also serves on the Broward County Sports Hall of Fame Committee.

"I admit, I tend to be a bit competitive," Mr. Lawlor says with a smile. "And I am very much looking forward to joining the team of dedicated legal pros at Ellis, Ged & Bodden."
