ELLIS, GED & BODDEN, P.A. PARTICIPATES IN ITS FIFTH YEAR AS COMMUNITY SPONSOR FOR JAMAICAN FEST 2006

Boca Raton, FL (August 16, 2006) – On Sunday, August 6th, residents gathered from all over South Florida at John Prince Park for the 44th Independence Celebration and Annual Jamaican Fest, where Carlos Bodden, new partner at Ellis, Ged & Bodden, P.A. sponsored a portion of the event.

The “Independence in the Park” event served as an opportunity for members of the local community to come together to for the 44th Independence Celebration and enjoy live entertainment from various children’s dance groups, local artists, The Nubian Players, Stanley Beckford, Alton Ellis, and the Jamaican Dialect-Cleopatra.

As a member of the Jamaican community, Firm partner Mr. Bodden serves his community in many capacities including a current Chairman of the Board role for the Jamaicans of the Palm Beaches, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to providing employment opportunities, education and health assistance to citizens in need. Mr. Bodden’s Firm, Ellis, Ged, & Bodden, P.A. is tied very closely to South Florida, and therefore has made a commitment to support activities which enhance the lives of the local community.

“Ellis, Ged & Bodden is so pleased to be an event sponsor again this year,” said Mr. Bodden. “It gives us the opportunity to work with this incredible organization and to maintain our involvement with the community, which is part of the mission of our Firm.”

Mr. Bodden is a member of The Academy of Florida Trial Lawyers, the American Trial Lawyers Association and the Caribbean Bar Association. Mr. Bodden earned his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Florida Atlantic University and his Juris Doctorate from Nova Southwestern University’s Shepard Broad Law Center.
