ELLIS & GED, P.A. SPONSOR LAW STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP

BOCA RATON, FL (November XX, 2006) – Ellis & Ged, P.A., is pleased to announce its sponsorship of the “Ellis & Ged Law Scholarship,” which will be administered by the George Snow Scholarship Fund in Boca Raton.

“Ellis & Ged is happy to provide this scholarship to a deserving law student, as we understand and appreciate the commitment and drive necessary to obtain a law degree,” said Ronda Ellis, founding partner.

The scholarship will be awarded to one current law student at Nova Southeastern University showing financial need; one who is trying to help themselves in their education process; and a student active in his or her school and community.

The law firm of Ellis & Ged, P.A. has been serving the S. Florida community for over ten years, and is actively involved in this community on a volunteer basis as well. Firm partners, associates, and employees are encouraged to dedicate their time to non-profit organizations with which they feel a close tie. From student organizations, to cultural committees to scholarships, the Ellis & Ged team consistently supports activities which will better the lives of its community’s residents.

“We rely on the generosity of local businesses such as Ellis & Ged to support our foundation and further educational opportunities for those who can not otherwise obtain them,” said Tim Snow, Executive Director of the George Snow Scholarship Foundation. “The Fund so appreciates this scholarship which will help support the education for a deserving law student.”
